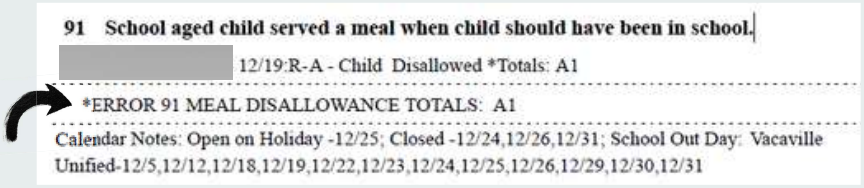
Claiming school aged children

Have you received this error message before when claiming a school-aged child?



If a school-age child is in your care during school hours (minimum days, holidays, school breaks, or illness), please select the appropriate reason when taking attendance to ensure you receive credit for AM snacks and lunch. (See image below.)

Struggling with Whole Grains?

Grains are a key requirement in CACFP. Remember, at least one grain must be served each day at a reimbursable meal or snack.

Don't forget to mark your grain component in KidKare when recording meals so your claim is accurate and complete.

To make sure your menus meet CACFP requirements, use the official list of approved grains, including whole grain-rich and enriched options.

You can find the list here:
