Drag "Open on Holiday' to the holiday

Are you eligible to claim your own child?

Family child care providers may claim their own children for CACFP reimbursement if the children are enrolled in care, participate in reimbursable meals, and all CACFP eligibility requirements are met.

Provider's household income must meet the income eligibility guidelines below and meals can only be claimed when another day care child is present for the meal.

Keep Your Records Up To Date

Accurate child records help ensure timely and accurate CACFP reimbursements.

If a child is no longer in your care, please withdraw them in KidKare.

For newly enrolled children, submit enrollment forms as soon as possible.

Remember to update schedules anytime a child's attendance changes, such as starting school, changing care hours, or adjusting their usual schedule.
